Royal Tern Hospitality Management

Enjoy a sumptuous breakfast at your hotel. (Quality of breakfast depends on kind of hotel booked and meal plan).

Morning proceeds to Jowai, located in the Jaintia Hills district, Jowai is famous for its scenic setting and breathtaking views - like all other cities of the state. The place is a rich mix of heritage and cultures which is reflected in the lifestyle of the town folks. Lakes are the main attraction of Jowai.

visit Krang Suri falls (carry clothes and towel to enjoy bathing in the fall) to reach the falls, it's a long trekking of 20 minutes.

After excursion of the fall, need to return to car again by same trekking and drive to Shillong (Falls are dry in winters)

Later Proceed for Laitlum Canyons is the perfect place to get wide, sweeping, and picturesque views of the state of Meghalaya. The name 'Laitlum Canyons' literally means end of the world or end of hills. It is located about 45 km from the city of Shillong. Trekkers, adventure lovers and thrill seekers can have a grand time as the place offers long, rocky and lush green treks. The best time to visit the place is in the afternoon hours as mornings are usually foggy, and the view cannot be enjoyed properly. Overnight at hotel.

Royal Tern Hospitality Management

Enjoy sumptuous breakfast at your hotel.

Morning proceeds for day excursion Dawki (Indo-Bangladesh Border) will provide you a serene view but will also add memories that you can cherish forever. The main attraction here apart from the extreme natural beauty and peace is the Dawki Bridge. It is a suspension bridge over the Umngot River and also serves as a place from where all tourists can enjoy some spectacular panoramic views.

Enjoy boat ride on River Dawki on direct payment (one of the cleanest rivers on earth) also you can try some snacks selling vendors from Bangladesh.

Later drive to visit Mwallynong Village.

Mwallynong The Cleanest Village in Asia, in eastern India's Mawlynnong village, tidying up is a ritual that everyone – from tiny toddlers to toothless grannies – takes very seriously. This small, 600-odd person town in the Meghalaya region is renowned as the cleanest village in India. And for India, that's really saying something. Discarded bottles and crumpled food wrappers mixed with cow dung – and worse – are simply part of the topography in most of the country. Mawlynnong is already way ahead of the curve, though. It was declared the cleanest village in Asia in 2003 and the cleanest in India in 2005 by Discover India magazine. This claim to fame stuck, and the village has become a regional legend and source of pride. Walk in, and all the typical rubbish is mysteriously, miraculously absent.
